

Aaron Heth

is a (ridiculously passionate, probably obsessive) graphic designer.

Experience

June 2009–August 2009, Design Intern, Moxie Sozo Design

Created and executed original directions for packaging, print, and web projects across a multitude of brands and clients.

Fall 2008–Present, Community Assistant/Head RA, Savannah College of Art & Design

Assisted the Residence Director and Resident Assistants and ran administrative and organizational duties.

Spring 2007–Spring 2008, Resident Assistant (RA), Savannah College of Art & Design

Ran administrative and programming duties, as well as managing a hall for two quarters, and two halls for a quarter for the Department of Residence Life and Housing.

Spring 2007–Spring 2008, Art Director, The Hive

Directed the identity, branding, and publicity, as well as creating and releasing a new website for The Hive, the online community for the Savannah College of Art & Design.

Education

2006-Present, Expected B.F.A. March 2010, Savannah College of Art & Design

Pursuing a Bachelors of Fine Art in the field of Graphic Design, Savannah, Georgia. GPA: Cumulative 3.8/Major 4.0.

Skills & Activities

Founder and co-host of Read Between the Leading, an online graphic design radio show.

Print and web freelance experience.

Created a tutoring group for web design and web markup, 2008.

Presenter at LEAD Conference, 2008, 2009.

Volunteer for Turner House Council, 2006–2008.

Proficient in XHTML and CSS.

Honors & Published Work

Selected as 1 of 200 students to attend the Art Director's Club National Portfolio Review in May.

Top 4 of graphic design graduating class of 2010 at the Savannah College of Art and Design.

Editorial design, Running Times Magazine issue 369–370.

Credits and Title Cards, Cast Offs (2009).

Friedman Family Endowed Scholarship, 2009.

Savannah College of Art & Design Honors Award for academics.

Dean's List (nine quarters), Winter 2007—Present.